Numb. 5124

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 26. to Saturday May 30. 1713.

Kenſington, May 28.

THE following Addreſs from the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, ſubſcribed by many Thouſand Hands, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Medlycott and Thomas Croſs, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, High Steward of the ſaid City.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, High Burgeſſes, Burgeſſes Aſſiſtants, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE Succeſs which has conſtantly attended the Juſtice of Your Arms, during the whole courſe of the War, has given us, Your dutiful and loyal Subjects, frequent occaſion to approach Your Royal Perſon with Congratulatory Addreſſes, and well-grounded Hopes, that we ſhould not fail (in due time) to obtain the great End propos'd, a glorious Peace, which we have now the Happineſs to ſee accompliſhed by Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom.

Many indeed were the Obſtructions artfully contrived, various the Schemes maliciouſly projected, to defeat this great Work, and no Pains has been ſpared, no Method unattempted to create a Diſlike of it in the Minds of Your good Subjects; but all theſe Artifices have ſerved only to make Your Majeſty's Pious Intentions for, and ſteddy purſuit of, the Intereſt of Your People, appear with the greater Advantage.

What Your Majeſty has done for the Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, by the perfect eſtabliſhed Friendſhip between You and that Illuſtrious Houſe, call, in a particular manner, for our grateful Acknowledgment; and we reſt intirely aſſur'd, that no Attempts to ſeparate Your Intereſts will ever meet with the leaſt Countenance from Your Majeſty or that Illuſtrious Family.

There remains now nothing for us to wiſh, but that Your Majeſty may be happy in a long and peaceful Reign, over a dutiful, affectionate, and flouriſhing People.

The following Addreſs from the County of Eſſex, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Carew Harvey alias Mildmay, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, and Sir Richard Child, Bart. one of the Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Eſſex.

MADAM!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, take leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of Your Arms and Councils, by which You have obtained a ſecure and glorious Peace for Your own Kingdoms and all Your Allies, notwithſtanding the Factious Oppoſition of thoſe who, to promote Deſigns they dare not own, endeavour'd by Intrigues at home, and Miſrepreſentations abroad, to fruſtrate ſo bleſſed a Work.

As we are fully ſatisfied of Your Majeſty's Care to preſerve the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover; ſo we think it cannot be ſuſpected by any but thoſe who are capable of the worſt Attempts againſt Your Perſon and Authority; and whoever goes about to inſinuate, that the ſaid Succeſſion is in Danger, under Your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, we ſhall look upon them as Enemies to their Queen and Country.

That Your Majeſty may long live to reap and enjoy the Fruits of that happy Peace You have given the World; That Your Enemies may be always humble, Your Allies grateful, and Your Subjects loyal, ſhall be the perpetual and earneſt Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough Maldon in the County of Eſſex, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Comyns, Eſq; Serjeant at Law, and Thomas Bramſtone, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by William Fytch, Eſq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Maldon, in the County of Eſſex.

MADAM!

WE approach Your Royal Preſence with the higheſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction, to Congratulate the Concluſion of a Peace ſo neceſſary for the Eaſe and Benefit of Your People, by which Your Majeſty crowns the numerous Felicities we enjoy, under Your auſpicious Reign: Victories and Triumphs may ſpeak Your Power; but Peace, the moſt deſirable Bleſſing among Men, gives us a demonſtration of Your Piety and Goodneſs, the more amiable Ornaments of Majeſty.

How conſpicuous, in this Treaty, appear Your Princely Care and Wiſdom, whereby, beſide the Advantages of Trade, You have added larger Territories to Your Dominion, than during the Ten Years of a proſperous War; beſide the Abatement in the Burthen of Taxes, You have firmly ſecured us againſt all all Pretenders to the Throne, rendred the Proteſtant Succeſſion more inviolable, and made the Amity with the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover ſo ſtrong, that all Attempts of ill-diſpoſed Perſons to diſſolve or leſſen it, will, we truſt, be fruitleſs and vain; and all Your faithful Subjects, beyond the preſent Happineſs they enjoy, will have the hopeful Proſpect of tranſmitting the ſame down to Poſterity.

But Your Majeſty's Pious Endeavours have extended to the Welfare even of Foreign Nations, to the Enlargement and Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt abroad, to the reſcuing its miſerable Confeſſors from Dungeons and Slavery, by which great and noble Acts, You have erected more laſting and more glorious Trophies, than could have been purchaſed by the beſt fought Feilds, or moſt fortunate Battles.

The following Addreſs from the Hudſon's Bay Company, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Governor, Deputy-Governor and Committee; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading into Hudſon's Bay.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, beg leave moſt heartily to Congratulate Your finiſhing that great Work You have had ſo long at Heart, the giving Peace to Your People, and putting an End to the vaſt Effuſion of Blood, decay of Trade, and publick Commerce, with the numerous Train of Misfortunes attending the Effects of War.

And as this Company have found in this Treaty, a more than ordinary Share of Your Royal Favour and Goodneſs, we do therefore deſire in the moſt particular manner, and with the utmoſt Gratitude, to return our humble and ſincere Thanks for the ſame, which have reſtored to Your Kingdom and to us, under Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, the whole Bay and Streights of Hudſon, Your undoubted Right, with all the Forts, Edifices, Guns, and other warlike Proviſion, entire and undemoliſhed; and have obliged the French King to take care to make Satisfaction to us for all Loſſes and Spoils done to our Colonies, Ships, Perſons and Goods, by the French in time of Peace; which by the Eighth Article of the Peace of Ryſwick were left wholly to the French, tho' the Proceedings of France in that Affair was made a chief Article of the War preceding that Treaty.

We doubt not but under theſe good Circumſtances, and Your Majeſty's gracious Protection, we ſhall be now encouraged, and able to renew and advance our Trade, to the Honour and Advantage of Your Kingdoms and Government, and towards repairing theſe heavy Loſſes we have ſo long ſuſtain'd.

May the Almighty Reward the good Things You have always done for Your People, and aſſiſt thoſe Endeavours You are conſtantly uſing to make them Happy; May his Infinite Goodneſs protect and prolong Your Reign over us, and crown You with Immortal Peace and Happineſs hereafter, are the inceſſant Prayers of, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Town and Port of Falmouth was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Richard Vyvyan, Bart. and John Trevanian, Eſq; Knights of the Shire for the County of Cornwall; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Burgeſſes, Officers of the Cuſtoms, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, do humbly beg leave to offer unto Your Majeſty our moſt devout Congratulations, and to teſtify that Joy and Thankfulneſs of Heart, which moſt juſtly Charms and Tranſports us, on a View of thoſe innumerable Bleſſings which we partake of under Your moſt wiſe and auſpicious Government, and which we have the greateſt Reaſon to hope, will extend to our late Poſterities, as well as Perſons, by means of that glorious and advantageous Peace, which Your Majeſty hath with wonderful Wiſdom and Goodneſs obtained for Europe, giving the moſt remote Corners of the Earth cauſe to extol Your Benignity. Above all, we teſtify our exultations on the Aſſurance Your Sacred Majeſty is pleas'd to vouchſafe Your People, of the Enjoyment of their religious and civil Happineſs in the beſt of Churches and Conſtitutions, by ſecuring the Succeſſion to the Throne of Great Britain in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

We inceſſantly beſeech God to grant Your Majeſty a long Life and much Health, a good and loyal Parliament, a wiſe and faithful Miniſtry like unto the Preſent, whereby You may (together with us and all Your Happy Subjects) reap the ſweet and bleſſed Fruits of Your Princely Toils, as the good Arbitreſs of, and the great Benefactrix unto the Nations of the Earth, and at laſt receive an eternal Crown of Glory in Heaven.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Tregoney, in the County of Cornwall, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Edward Southwell, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Miniſter, and the loyal Inhabitants of Your ancient Borough of Tregoney.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE can no longer be ſilent, but humbly beg leave once in Your glorious Reign to approach Your Sacred Majeſty, and with the reſt of all honeſt Britons, to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy concluſion of Peace.

Who but profligate Men, can be diſſatisfied that a ſtop is put to the effuſion of Chriſtian Blood? and, Who but the pretended Friends of our Church, repine that the Proteſtant Succeſſion is ſecured?

When we conſider the great Things You, Madam, have for us, as dutiful Subjects, we pray that the Divine Providence may long protect Your Royal Perſon.

And that Your Majeſty may be enabled to overcome all Difficulties, contrived by a reſtleſs Faction, to obſtruct Your great and glorious Deſigns for the repoſe of Europe, may Your Senate always have a Majority of ſuch faithful Patriots as now repreſent the Kingdom.

May

May Your Majesty be ever blest'd with such an able Ministry as now adorn Your Council Board.

May Your wise and frugal Treasurer obviate the black and dismal Designs of Blood-thirsty and Deceitful Men.

May Your disinterested General be constantly happy in Your Majesty's Favour, and the good Wishes of his Fellow Subjects.

May our Manufactures be encouraged, that so by degrees, we may retrieve what we have suffer'd by a burthensome and expensive War.

And may Your Majesty have such dutiful returns to Your pious Injunctions, that the Arts of Peace may be cultivated among us, that groundless Jealousies may be laid aside, Party-Rage extinguished, and Men learn to speak Truth; then will Your Majesty's Reign be Prosperous and Easie, our Establish'd Church out of Danger, and our Religion safely transmitted to After-Ages, without any Foreign Guaranty.

The following Address from the Corporation of Portsmouth, was Presented to Her Majesty by Sir James Wishart and Sir William Gifford, their Representatives, accompanied by Sir Peter Mew, and John Saffeild Esq; Members of the Corporation; being Introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Southampton, and the Rt. Hon. the Lord North and Grey, Governor of Portsmouth.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton.

Dread Sovereign,

WE beg Leave, in the most humble manner, to Congratulate your Sacred Majesty upon the Conclusion of the Peace; which, notwithstanding the Obstruction the Enemies to your Crown have given to it is, by your unwearied Goodness, accomplish'd to the Joy of these Nations.

Permit us also, MADAM, to repeat our Thanks for that tender Concern Your Majesty has been pleased to express for the House of Hanover. May there never want a Prince of that Illustrious Family to fill Your Throne in future Times, nor People to bless Your Name for those Civil and Religious Rights, which, by Your Majesty's Consummate Wisdom, are made to descend to them.

As we every Day thank the Almighty for preserving Your precious Life, to the finishing this blest Work, so we cannot without thankfulness remember likewise the Escape of those, who, by by the Designation of Providence, and Your own wise Choice, have so eminently distinguish'd themselves in Conducting this great Affair, as happily to put a stop to the further Effusion of Christian Blood: And we cannot but observe, from what we have since seen, how very many Evils the same Divine Hand prevented by healing a single Stab, and what a number of Lives it preserved, by wonderfully Interposing for the saving of one.

Tho' we, by our Maritime Situation, like some of Your Allies, have shared a greater Degree of the Profit than Burthen of the War, yet we humbly assure Your Majesty, that we not only gladly part with those Advantages, but shall always be ready to Sacrifice our private Interests, to promote the Tranquility of Your Kingdoms.

This, may it please Your Majesty, is the smallest Tribute Subjects can offer to a Queen, whose Gracious Acts have render'd Her Absolute in every Loyal Heart: And, which, as they will enable, will likewise engage Your People in the Preservation of (what is dearest to them) Your Royal Prerogative; and gratefully to proclaim Your Goodness in Your gracious Protection of them in the late glorious War, and Your wise Provisions for them in this more glorious Peace.

The following Address from the Borough of Richmond, was Presented to Her Majesty by Reginald Marriott, Esq; being Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Buckingham, Lord-Lieutenant of the North-Riding of the County of York.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Common-Council, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Tradesmen and others of the Borough of Richmond, in the County of York.

PERMIT us, Great Queen, to pay our early Tribute of Thanks at Your Majesty's Feet, in the most grateful Sense of our Duty and Affection to the best of Sovereigns, whom Divine Providence has so justly bestowed his Favours upon, in making You the Glorious Instrument of procuring a safe and honourable Peace, not only to Your own Subjects, but to Your Allies.

We want Words sufficient to express our Joy and Gladness to see Your Majesty's Gracious Speech heretofore from the Throne so particularly fulfilled, and so desired a Peace (for the equal Benefit of Your Majesty's Allies) brought to so great a Perfection by Your Royal Wisdom, and the steady and unshaken Conduct of Your wise and faithful Ministers, notwithstanding all the Artifices and Designs of our Domestick Adversaries, attended with all the Craft and Malice of Human Nature, to disturb Your Majesty's Subjects, and thereby render difficult so Glorious a Work.

Allow us, Dread Sovereign, (if it is Lawful upon this Occasion) to mingle with our inexpressible Joys our true Concern for such Your misguided Subjects, whose Passions and Self-Interests endeavour to lessen the Publick Joy at this time, and will not allow them to taste the Fruits of Peace from the Hands of any but their own Faction (be it never so Happy for Great Britain.)

But that Your Majesty may still defeat the Evil Purposes and Intentions of such Men, and continue Heaven's Favourite, and as happy an Instrument (as You have hitherto been) of daily Blessings to Your People, and long, long, to share the Fruits of this Glorious Peace, and employ the Councils of such as have forwarded the same, in the Defence and Support of this Church and Nation notwithstanding all the Crafts and Subtilties of Your and Your Enemies) shall be the daily Prayers and sincere Wishes and Endeavours of Your most Dutiful, most Faithful, and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Corporation of Kingston upon Hull, was Presented to Her Majesty by William St. Quintin, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, Bernard Granville, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor, and Dr. Benjamin Wade, Mayor of the said Borough; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Chamberlains, and Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston upon Hull.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit us to approach Your Sacred Throne, and with Hearts full of Duty and Loyalty to Your Person, Perſon, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Effects of Your prudent Adminiſtration.

We receive the Peace Your Majeſty has given to theſe Parts of Europe, with the higheſt Rejoicings, mixt with a profound Admiration of Your Majeſty's Conſummate Wiſdom and Unparallel'd Goodneſs, which have conquer'd reſtleſs Oppoſition, and at the ſame time ſecured the reaſonable Intereſts of the Oppoſers.

Nothing can add to our Joy upon this Occaſion, but the Senſe of Your Majeſty's entire Union and Friendſhip with the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which will be made happy by ſo bright a Pattern, as that of Your Majeſty's Government; to follow whoſe Steps, will be the only means to perpetuate to theſe Kingdoms our moſt Excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

Theſe Bleſſings, procured (under God) by Your Royal Care, do juſtly claim the Hearts of Your People, and the Confidence You vouckſafe to place in their Affection, cannot but create in them an utter Abhorrence of all Faction and Sedition, a grateful Reliance upon all Your Majeſty's Meaſures, and a chearful Obedience to all Your Commands.

For our ſelves, we do humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we are firmly reſolved in our ſeveral Places, to Cultivate thoſe Arts of Peace You are pleaſed to recommend to us; and we ſhall ever be with the forwardeſt of Your Subjects in our Duty, and in our Prayers to Almighty GOD, that he would bleſs Your Reign with long Peace and Proſperity, and all Your People with a true Zeal for Your Majeſty's Quiet, in which conſiſts our Happineſs.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Warwick, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Dodington Greville, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Northampton.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Warwick.

MADAM!

YOUR Reign from Your Aſcent to the Throne, having been a continued Scene of War and Victory, we humbly now beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty on the happy termination of it, in an honourable and advantageous Peace.

To Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom and ſteddy Counſels, muſt be aſcribed the accompliſhment of this Treaty, which, thro' the whole Progreſs of it, has been encountred by the malevolent Obſtructers of their Own and the Nation's Happineſs, with little leſs than Warlike Oppoſition.

To Your exemplary and ſingular Piety is owing the tender Concern for the Reform'd Religion, for the Intereſts of the Eſtabliſh'd Church, and ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

To Your unparallel'd Goodneſs, the making Your People the Guardians of their own Safety, and their Affections the Guarranty of Your Sacred Perſon.

May the Art, or rather Trade of War, be now turn'd into the Arts of Peace, and Your Majeſty long live to enjoy the bleſſed Effects of it, in the Government of an Opulent and Flouriſhing, as well as hitherto Valiant and Loyal People.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Naples, May 10. N. S. Mareſchal Taun, our new Viceroy, is expected here every Day, and ſeveral Perſons of Quality are gone towards Capua to meet him. The Superbe and Ormonde, two Britiſh Men of War, which came lately from Meſſina, ſailed Yeſterday for Leghorn. The St. Leopold, and other Neopolitan Veſſels, have likewiſe ſet ſail for Barcelona with Proviſions. The proclaiming of the Ceſſation of Arms here is put off for a few Days, in concert with the Government of Sicily, that it may be publiſh'd in both Kingdoms at the ſame time. Eight hundred Recruits, that are arrived from Croatia in the Iſland of Tremiti, have received Orders to perform their Quarentine there, before they come into this Country. We have receiv'd Advice from Palermo, that the Sicilians are very well diſpoſed to receive the Duke of Savoy for their Sovereign.

Venice, May 19. N. S. The Electoral Prince of Saxony is expected every Day in this City, where he intends to ſpend ſome time incognito. The Senate hath elected Signor Angelo Emo Proveditor General of Dalmatia, which is a Poſt of great Honour and Profit. This Day Signor Nicholo Duodo went from hence towards Rome, with the Character of Ambaſſador in Ordinary from the Republick. We have received Advice, that the Empreſs having continued three Days at Mantua, ſet out from thence on the 13th towards Uſſolengo in the Veroneſe, where ſhe lay; and having dined the next Day at Borghetto, ſhe arrived in the Trentin the ſame Evening. Her Majeſty was entertain'd at the Expence of the Republick in all the Places where ſhe ſtopt in the Venetian Territories. They write from Rome, that the Marquis de Fontes, Ambaſſador of Portugal, had made his Publick Entry there, being followed by One hundred and thirteen Coaches with ſix Horſes. His Excellency was in Cardinal Paolucci's Coach, together with Cardinal Conti, Protector of that Crown, who afterwards conducted him to an Audience of the Pope. Two Days after the ſame Miniſter made a ſplendid Entertainment, upon account of the Birth of the Prince of Braſil. In the Evening there was a Firework erected before his Palace, which was illuminated with Wax Torches, as were likewiſe the Piazza Colonna, and the Colonna Trajana. Cardinal Davia had alſo made his publick Entry, and in a Conſiſtory, which was held on the 4th Inſtant, the Pope gave him the Hat with the uſual Ceremonies. The Diſputes encreaſe about the Affairs of the Friar Granelli, and it is ſaid the Envoy of Genoa has had very warm Debates upon that Subject with Cardinal Paolucci, firſt Miniſter of the Pope. The Jeſuits are very preſſing to have the Canonization of Staniſlaus Coſta performed ſoon, and upon their Inſtances the Congregation of Riti hath often ſat about it, without having yet come to any Reſolution. We are informed that the Ship Friendſhip coming from Aberdeen with Salmon, and bound for this Place, was caſt away in the Bay of Euphemia, but moſt of the Men were ſaved.

Berlin, May 27. N. S. The King is gone to Brandenburg to review the Troops there, after which he intends to go to Potſdam to take the Diverſions of Hawking. His Majeſty hath beſtow'd a new Regiment upon Monſieur Kameke, who is likewiſe declared a Major General. Monſieur Beſſer, Maſter of the Ceremonies, hath obtained Leave to reſign that Employment. Count Schonborn intends to ſet out from hence in a few Days, in order to return to Hamburgh, and from thence to Vienna. The War in Holſtein being ended by the Agreement made between the Allies and Count Steinbock, the Muſcovite and Saxon Troops are expected again in Mecklenburg and Swediſh Pomerania: Whereupon the King of Pruſſia hath ſent a conſiderable Body of Men to join the Forces that are already poſted on the Frontiers of thoſe Countries.

Hanover, May 30. N. S. We have received advice from Huſum, that the Swediſh Priſoners who ſurrendred at Tonningen, amount to near Ten thouſand Men, including the Sick. They are diſpers'd in ſeveral Places in Jutland, Funen and Holſtein, where they are to maintain themſelves at their own Expence, till they embark in order to be tranſported to Sweden. Moſt of the Germans have declared that they will not return with them, and have demanded to be ſet at liberty. Count Steinbock was received with great Civility by the King of Denmark, and hath had the Honour to dine with his Majeſty, together with Prince Menzikoff and other Generals. Baron Goertz hath had ſeveral Conferences with the Daniſh Miniſters, upon the Affairs of the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein his Maſter; but the King of Denmark hath ſignified to him, that he will commit the Government of that Dutchy to his own Miniſters, till he and his Allies have made Peace with Sweden. Accordingly Monſieur Wibe, one of his Privy Counſellors, is gone to Sleſwick to adminiſter Juſtice there. It is ſaid Baron Goertz intends to go to Vienna, to complain of this to the Emperor. They write from Caſſel, that the Duke of Mecklenburg, who had been there for ſome time, is ſet out with the Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtad towards Slagenback. Letters from Adrianople of the Eight and twentieth of April bring an account, that the Divan ſeparated on the 22d, after having come to a Reſolution, That the King of Sweden ſhould be guarded through Poland to Dantzick, and that the Muſcovite and Poliſh Ambaſſadors ſhould remain Hoſtages in Turkey, till his Majeſty was arrived in his own Dominions. The ſame advices add, that the Grand Vizir went, with a great Retinue, very near the King of Sweden's Quarters, and invited him to a magnificent Entertainment he had prepared for him, ſending him word at the ſame time, that he had an Affair of great Importance to communicate to him. But his Swediſh Majeſty refuſed to go, and anſwer'd That as he was a King, the Vizir ought to come to him, if he had any thing to ſay to him. Upon which, the Vizir returned to Adrianople without having had an enterview with him.

Utrecht, June 2. N. S. On the 31ſt paſt, the Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace between France and Portugal, were exchang'd at the Lord Privy Seal's Houſe. Yeſterday the Queen's Plenipotentiaries had a Conference with thoſe of the States General, in order to make a Proviſional Settlement of the Britiſh Trade in the Spaniſh Netherlands, till the Emperor is put in Poſſeſſion of thoſe Countries, and a conſiderable Progreſs was made therein. This Morning the ſame Miniſters were again in Conference at the Earl of Strafford's Houſe.

Whereas the Correſpondence between Great Britain and Portugal has, during the War, been carried on Weekly by the Falmouth Packet Boats, Theſe are to give notice, That the ſaid Intercourſe will be carried on, only once a Fortnight, from and after Tueſday the 2d of June next, when the Letters for Portugal will be diſpatch'd, as uſual, from the General Poſt Office, and Afterwards on every other Tueſday following Navy-Office, May 18, 1713.

The paſſing the Accompts of the late Treaſurers of the Navy, as well as of the preſent Treaſurer, being carried on at this Office with all the Expedition that may be; it is recommended now again (as has been ſeveral times before) to ſuch Perſons as have had any Bills aſſigned upon them by the Navy Board, and have not yet received their Money for the ſaid Bills, forthwith to call for the ſame: And all Perſons who have any Impreſts ſtanding out againſt them, and no Bills or Accompts in this Office to clear the ſaid Impreſts, are adviſed to bring in their Bills or Accompts with all poſſible ſpeed to diſcharge them, that ſo the ſaid Impreſts may not be brought to account, and return'd into the Exchequer, as otherwiſe they will be, and ſet in Super upon them at that Place. Likewiſe ſuch Perſons as have paſſed their Accompts, and have not taken up their
